Biography

Abri & The Everlasting are a Dubai-based collective of four seasoned musicians united by a shared passion for groove and original music. Brought together not to cover, but to create, the band stands at the forefront of the region’s original Soul and Funk movement. Blending Soul, Funk and Reggae, with influences drawn from Jazz and Afrobeat, they craft a sound that is raw, soulful and rhythmically rich, driven by fearless improvisation and undeniable chemistry.

Fronted by acclaimed Emirati/Tanzanian vocalist Hamdan Al Abri (UAE/Tanzania), the band brings together Ratish Chadha (Drums/India), Jerome Deligero (Guitar/Philippines) and Steven Bedford (Bass/UK). ABRI has shared stages with Erykah Badu, Herbie Hancock, Kamasi Washington and Ziggy Marley. The band has also performed with Grammy-nominated keyboardist Elijah Fox.

Born out of Dubai’s 2020 lockdown, the band officially embarked on its journey in 2025 and released its debut album, The Healing, on Ishtar Global in October 2026.
