Biography

I'm Aegean Barish, a UK-based DJ with Turkish and Cypriot roots. I specialise in Melodic Techno and Progressive House, combining deep basslines, hypnotic rhythms, atmospheric textures and emotional melodies to create unique musical journeys.

My musical inspiration comes from the Aegean and Mediterranean, where different cultures, sounds and emotions meet. I enjoy exploring underground electronic music, discovering hidden gems and creating sets that take listeners through dark, mysterious and uplifting atmospheres.

My mixes have been featured on international radio stations, including Drift Radio (Wales, UK), RADIOEX (Ukraine), Stardust Radio (Spain) and Hanoi Community Radio (Vietnam).

I'm passionate about sharing my music with audiences around the world, connecting with new people and continuously developing my own identity within the electronic music scene.
