ALV

Techno Bounce

Contact Information

Biography

Based in Milan, producer and turntablist ALV redefines the boundaries of Fast Techno and Hard Bounce by fusing them with analog sampling culture. Known for his "Italian Bounce" format, he transforms Black music and '70s disco classics into high-speed club weapons (145+ BPM). On stage, ALV brings a technical approach that is exceptionally rare in today's techno scene: performing strictly on a Rane Performer and/or Technics turntables, he executes live scratch routines and real-time sample manipulation. A unique visual and sonic identity, built to dominate the European festival circuit.
