Biography

Hobson, a Drum and Bass DJ renowned for seamlessly merging euphoric dancefloor anthems with heavy, high-impact drops. His live sets capture a dynamic contrast, moving fluidly between high-energy peaks to blissful interludes.

Having shared the stage with the likes of Koven and Dimension, he has performed at legendary London venues such as Ministry of Sound and The Steelyard, alongside international appearances for the Let It Roll Afterparty at Prague's Storm Club. Recognised for his standout remixes and edits that have reached 100,000+ plays, and his own works that have caught the attention of BBC Introducing appearing on the show multiply times.

His unique style is rooted in a childhood surrounded by garage, breaks and big house anthems, drawing inspiration from all corners of electronic music.
