Run it up. 03 About South Florida, by way of Georgia. Alt rap with pressure behind it. HARLEM is an alt hip hop artist and fashion-forward creative shaped by South Florida. Born in Macon, Georgia, he moved to Florida in the seventh grade, and the region got into everything: the nightlife, the bass, the street culture, the heat. His records live where music, fashion, and visual storytelling meet. Introspective writing over melodic textures and modern hip hop production, circling identity, ambition, and individuality. He writes everything he puts out, and he has opened for OSAMASON at The Mayan and for LUCKI at Warehouse 1720, both in Los Angeles. Creating not just songs, but a world around them.
