Biography

Biography From Northern Soul roots and London's club scene to Ibiza residencies and international dancefloors. One line Short Long COPY BIO DJ KP is a British international DJ and producer blending Disco, House and Vocal House, with career highlights spanning Café del Mar Ibiza, London's club scene and Royal Caribbean. DJ KP is a British international DJ and producer specialising in Disco, House and Vocal House. A third-generation DJ with Northern Soul roots, his career includes a 2026 residency at Café del Mar Ibiza, performances at fabric London and AIR Amsterdam, and two resident DJ contracts with Royal Caribbean. His debut release on Vivifier Records entered the Beatport Top 100 House Chart, with subsequent music receiving support from BBC Introducing and the curator of the BBC Radio 1 Future Alternative Playlist. Beyond the booth, he founded London events platform The Collective. He is now preparing to establish a Philippines base in 2027 while developing further international bookings. From London's underground club rooms and Ibiza sunsets to international stages across Europe and the Caribbean, DJ KP has built a career delivering uplifting, crowd-focused performances that blend Disco, House, club classics and contemporary dance music. A third-generation DJ with Northern Soul influences, KP developed his sound and reputation through London's nightlife scene, holding residencies at Boxpark Wembley, Cargo and Piccadilly Institute, alongside appearances at fabric, Elektrowerkz and Brixton Jamm. His debut release on Vivifier Records entered the Beatport Top 100 House Chart, with subsequent productions receiving support from BBC Introducing and the curator of the BBC Radio 1 Future Alternative Playlist. His international career includes Spring Break Amsterdam, where he performed at AIR Amsterdam as part of an event headlined by Chase & Status, alongside an international lineup featuring Shy FX and LF System. He also completed resident DJ contracts aboard Royal Caribbean's Serenade of the Seas and Oasis of the Seas, delivering entertainment to guests from around the world. In 2026, KP completed his first Ibiza season, joining the resident DJ team at the iconic Café del Mar, soundtracking sunset sessions and closing sets. His island performances included Ibiza Rocks Bar, Itaca, Wiki Woo, Es Paradis Bar and Bay Bar Beach Club, alongside FML Weekender appearances and a monthly show on Ibiza Stardust Radio. Beyond the booth, KP founded The Collective, a London-based events and artist platform delivering Thames boat parties, Garage brunch events, underground club nights and international opportunities for emerging DJs. Now preparing to establish a home base in the Philippines in 2027, KP is looking to develop new residencies and performance opportunities across Southeast Asia while continuing to bring his signature sound to international dancefloors. With a foundation in Disco and House, international hospitality experience and an instinctive understanding of different audiences, DJ KP brings musical versatility, professionalism and genuine energy to every performance.
