Biography

Joshua Curran is a 21 year old Czech-Irish singer-songwriter and multi-instrumentalist.

His hooky, rock sound draws on his musical influences such bands as The Kooks, Inhaler and the Arctic Monkeys. This can be heard clearly on his debut single Star Tonight. In his follow up release, “Ninety Five” his sound is more unique without losing his original influences.

His future holds tons of new music with an exciting cataloge of music ready to be released. Joshua released his debut album “Can We Still Dance” in July 2024.

After a step-back to figure out, what Joshua wanted to say, he’s back with his second studio album “Anyway”, where he experiments with more alternative rock sounds, and adds himself up to be a part of the guitar music comeback.

Joshua has an incredible band The Rubberdux joining him on gigs.
