Biography

Gaia with a synthesiser Poesie is a Brighton-born independent songstress, whose debut single Hunter-Gatherer established her as a fierce new female voice on the indie scene. Known for catchy melodies, danceable beats and meaningful lyrics, she writes about humanity, ecology and equality. Her dance floor hooks celebrate connection at a time when we need it the most. Since releasing her debut EP Lost Romantic last year, Poesie has been praised by notable critics and is building a loyal fanbase. This October 30th, Poesie is releasing her second, 5-track EP Nature Mother with Apollo Distribution, which boasts a truly cutting edge sound, unique theatricality and eco-feminist themes. Hailing from a theatre background, Poesie is a magnetic performer. After her sell-out EP launch show at Paper Dress Vintage, Hackney on 28th October, Poesie will embark on a UK tour.
