Biography

Prudance is a DJ and producer based in Stockport, Greater Manchester, with a sound rooted in progressive house, melodic and deeper electronic music, drawing influences from across the wider underground dance scene.

Since his debut release on 10 Steps North in 2025, he has continued to develop his sound through original productions and collaborations with artists including Glenn Morrison, Seizmic, Alex Medina and Nightwaves. His music has received support from Nick Warren, Anthony Pappa, Marco Carola, Solomun and Above & Beyond, alongside airplay on BBC Introducing in Manchester.

During 2025, Prudance released four EPs, including material on Glenn Morrison's Fall From Grace Records. His catalogue has since surpassed 150,000 streams, with several releases reaching the Beatport charts, including a Top 10 release.

In January 2026, his collaboration Beyond with Seizmic received BBC Radio 1 airplay during Pete Tong's show, presented by Franky Wah.

Alongside producing, Prudance hosts Continuum Radio on YANA Electronica, showcasing progressive and melodic electronic music. He has also recently recorded a guest mix for Manchester promoter Free From Sleep and is set to make his debut for them at Joshua Brooks in December 2026, supporting Lee Burridge.

With further releases planned for 2027, including an upcoming EP on Frequenza and several new original productions and collaborations in development, Prudance continues to build his catalogue while developing his sound across deeper, melodic and more driving electronic music.
