Biography

We're Watermill River, a young, energetic five-piece indie-based band bringing together the best of indie, alternative and pop-rock music to create live performances that leave a lasting impression.

Our sets are built around raw energy, big sounds and songs that bring people together. From heartwarming tracks that everyone can sing along to, to upbeat indie anthems that get the crowd on their feet, we pride ourselves on delivering a set that has something for everyone.

Don't let our young age fool you. We bring passion, confidence and an undeniable love for what we do every time we step on stage. Whether we're playing an intimate pub, a packed-out venue, a wedding or a private event, our aim is always the same: to create an atmosphere, get people involved and make every performance one to remember.

We believe live music should be felt, not just heard. Expect big choruses, infectious energy, familiar favourites and a few surprises along the way.

We're Watermill River. We bring the music, the energy and the moments you'll remember.
