Biography

THE MUSICTHE PEOPLETHE MEMORIESFor over three decades, DJ Wizkid has been bringing people together through his music, from classic house and rave that kicked off the dance music explosion and carried on through the house and trance years of the mid to late 90s and into the new century. Fast forward to today and his passion for sharing great new music is as strong as ever From underground house parties and pirate radio to packed clubs, festivals and dancefloors across the UK and Europe, the music has always been about connection, community and unforgettable nights. Some things have changed over the years. The technology. The venues. The way we discover music. But the feeling on the dancefloor remains exactly the same and if he's not playing you'll most likely see him dancing! SINCE 1990 – a life long passionTerry Fisher, better known as DJ Wizkid, has been part of the UK house and rave scene since 1990. What began with listening to pirate radio, building record collections and a love of underground music soon became a lifelong journey through clubs, events, festivals and radio stations. He worked for major rave promoters, helping in various roles including Orange and Outer Limits and for the Dy-Na-Mix DJ/Artist agency, touring with Joey Beltram, Moby, Kevin Saunderson, Juan Atkins, Richie Hawtin, Lenny Dee, Digital Boy and Outlander. Over the years, Terry has played alongside some of the scene's best-known names, earning a reputation for reading a crowd, creating an atmosphere and delivering the kind of sets people remember long after the night ends. Today, he continues to play regularly across London and the South, while hosting weekly shows on Fantasy FM. BOOKINGSTHE RAVE SCENE – WHERE FRIENDSHIPS WERE FORMEDMany people remember nights like Orange, Dreamscape, Fantasia, Brainstorm, Final Frontier, Ultra Vegas, Peach and venues such as Heaven, Astoria, The Sanctuary, Sterns, Milwaukie's, Roller Express, The Rocket, Club UK, and many others. The connections made on the dancefloor, behind the decks, at the afterparty, or even a random house that everyone has gone back to, remain for a lifetime and new friends quickly became something special. And the music never stopped playing! Friends became family. Strangers became regular faces. And a community began to grow. Ravers weren't just people who attended the parties. They were and still are the story. Built on music, friendship, respect and good times, those memories continue to live on today. THE JOURNEY – DECADES ON THE DANCEFLOOROver the years, Terry's journey has taken him from early raves at some interesting locations to intimate underground events to working behind the scenes with some of the most respected venues and promoters in the business, attending events all over the UK from Plymouth to Dundee! He has played alongside some of the biggest names and for many major promotions including WeAreHousework, Retrospective of House, Ultra Vegas, Sun of a Beach, Platinum Sessions, Dirty Stereo, Rave Days, Pure Sea, Ministry of Breaks, Baby Love and many others. He has played at many London venues including 93 Feet East, XOYO, Basing House, Rolling Stock, Q Shoreditch, Unit 58, The Bunker and his favourite club of all time, Koko (Camden Palace). He plays at festivals such as the Isle of Wight Festival, Lakefest, Valleyfest, MK Weekend Festival and Equinox. He also plays at a number of overseas locations too including in Amsterdam, Tenerife, Corfu and of course, Ibiza! The venues may have changed. The crowds may have grown. But the passion for sharing amazing house music remains exactly the same. WHAT'S NEXT – STILL GOING STONGMore than 35 years after first stepping behind the decks, Terry remains as passionate about music as ever. Whether playing a packed venue, a festival crowd, a radio show or an intimate underground event, the goal has never changed: To bring people together through music. To create moments. To make memories. And to keep the dancefloor moving. +1 – THE STORY BE
